

adjournment came up as special order. Mr. Fletcher of Cavendish said:

"I was about to introduce a resolution yesterday similar to the one now before the House. I think the gentlemen for the presentation of this resolution. I sincerely hope it will be adopted. I suppose every member of the House is fully aware that the united voice of the people is a short session. They say to us, do all that is necessary to be done in order to guard well the rights and liberties of the country and to roll back the desolating tide of slavery and then return. An acknowledged evil in this country, in the National and State Governments is too much legislation. Each successive Legislature seems inclined to do something which their predecessors have not done. To accomplish this, many new laws or additions to an act are proposed. Unless clearly demanded by urgent considerations, both are alike detrimental to the public interest. In my view, that people are the best governed who have the fewest and plainest laws. I think that in no way can we so well exhibit our great devotion to the interests of our dear constituents as by going home at the time named. It appears to me that all necessary business can be accomplished by a fixed determination to conform our action to this arrangement. A short session has often been the theme for declamation, but not the result of action. The people have long been anxious for biennial sessions or even less frequent, and now it will be recollected that only five or six months have elapsed since the Legislature of Vermont was convened. When the hard-working freemen, who practice the strictest economy in order to make their families comfortable, look over the legislative expenditures of this year in connection with other enormous taxes they may well groan, being so burdened."

Mr. Hubbel of Fairfax, while he agreed with the gentleman from Cavendish, thought it better to lay the resolution upon the table; especially as the Senate had passed a similar resolution, which was lying upon the speaker's table; the House ordered the resolution to lie.

Adjourned.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE FREEMAN.

7 O'CLOCK, A. M.

CAMP RICHARDSON, Bolivar, Pope Co., Mo., Oct. 26. A special dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat says Gen. Fremont and staff arrived at Bolivar from Camp Morrison, and encamped this evening on the outskirts of the town. Bolivar, like nearly all the towns in the southwest, almost entirely deserted, the stores being all closed and many of the houses abandoned.

It is now ascertained that the loss of the Fremont body guard in the brilliant charge at Springfield, was from six to eight killed, and about fifteen to twenty wounded.

A number of most brilliant instances of daring were shown on our side. One sergeant had three horses shot from under him, and a rebel fired a pistol at a surgeon's head, and was on the very act of firing when the Major severed his arm from his shoulder, and laid him dead at his horse's feet.

Col. Carr's 41 Illinois Cavalry, and Major Johnson's sharpshooters, have left here for Springfield, and one Regiment of Gen. Sigel's division will march there at midnight.

Gen. Fremont and staff, and Gen. Sigel's division start by forced marches for Springfield at daylight to-morrow morning, and will probably arrive there in the evening.

Gen. McKinstry was two miles north of Warsaw last night. Gen. Pope was this side of the Onago, and Gen. Hunter in advance of him, all marching to this point.

I understand that in the forthcoming battle Gen. Sargis and Lane will have the left column, and McKinstry's division will form the reserve, Gen. Sigel taking the advance. Nothing further has been heard from Price, and there is no news of Gen. McCulloch.

Tipton, Mo., Oct. 28. Special dispatches to the St. Louis Democrat say that Gen. Kennedy who has just returned to Sedalia from Price's army, states that Price's men are much dissatisfied at the prospect of moving the State and that they will force him to make a stand within our borders.

On the other hand it is ascertained that Gen. Johnson has left Kentucky to take command of Price's and McCulloch's forces, and that before leaving Kentucky he sent couriers to Price and McCulloch directing them to fall back into Arkansas, and not give Fremont battle until he could reach them.

Gen. Kennedy says Gen. Fremont will find a much larger force to contend against than he imagines.

Considerable numbers of Price's rebels are starting in this section daily, and it is feared that they will renew their plundering habits as soon as our troops leave.

Washington, Oct. 28. Accounts from Darnestown received to-night say that a sufficient force remains at and near Edwards Ferry to insure safety against any attempts of the rebels to cross or molest us.

Gen. Casey's division, comprising eleven regiments was reviewed this afternoon by the President and Gen. McClellan and staff on the parade ground back of the Capitol. Several thousand spectators were present and the troops made a splendid appearance. All seemed anxious to merit the approbation of their commander.

Robert Crozier has been appointed District Attorney for Kansas in place of Burr, who is engaged in military service.

New York, Oct. 28. A special dispatch from Washington states that an officer from Gen. Sickles' encampment says the rebel steamer, George Page, yesterday compelled them to withdraw further from the river bank by shelling them.

Cairo, Oct. 28. A party of 30 men of the Illinois 28th regiment while scouting on Saturday, encountered a party of rebel cavalry and infantry 13 miles below this place. A brisk engagement ensued, and the rebels were routed with the loss of a Captain, Lieutenant, and several wounded. There was no loss on our side.

Paduca, Oct. 28. Three Companies of the Illinois 9th Regiment went to Saratoga, 18 miles up Cumberland river, Saturday, and attacked a company of rebel cavalry, 100 strong, completely routing them.

The rebel loss was 13 killed, and 24 prisoners.

ers Fifty-two horses, and all their camp equipment were also taken. Our troops had two wounded.

Charts and Sealed Orders of the Naval Expedition Stolen.

Fremont Again "Suspended!"

EUROPE FOR THE UNION!

Suffering among the Rebels.

New York, Oct. 29. The Tribune states that one of its correspondents with the great naval expedition, writes from Hampton Roads on Friday evening last that he had just been informed upon good authority, that the private Secretary of Commodore Dupont had absconded, taking with him the maps and charts and even the sealed orders of the Commodore.

The Tribune's Washington despatch says, Gen. Scott will voluntarily retire from his rank and duties within the next two days, solely on account of physical infirmity.

The order that Gen. Fremont should surrender his command to Gen. Hunter, was sent to Gen. Curtis at St. Louis last Saturday, with a letter of instructions to Hunter, and directions to Curtis not to deliver it if Gen. Fremont was preparing for a battle, or in the presence of the enemy.

Old residents state that good roads cannot be counted on after 17 days longer, and after that time it will be impossible for large bodies of troops with artillery to reach Manassas from Washington.

The Times' dispatch says it is reported that Johnston is in command at Centerville, and that very strong defences are being thrown up there where there is a large force of rebels. There are no troops except a picket regiment at Fairfax or this side of Centerville.

Government advices from Europe state that the official opinion there, is that it is for their interest that the Union be maintained.

The Provost Marshal of Alexandria discovered a number of federal muskets concealed in houses there where they were placed by our retreating troops from Bull Run.

Fortress Monroe, Oct. 28. One hundred thousand rations were distributed among the Regiments this morning. The Captains of the transports received sealed orders to-day. It is reported that one of them has opened his orders and divulged the destination of the fleet.

The men and animals on board the fleet suffered greatly during the gale of the last two days.

A detachment of the Massachusetts 15th Regiment to day followed the telegraph wire to Newport News without encountering any rebels. Two deserters from the rebels state that the rebels at Yorktown are suffering greatly from want and sickness.

New York, Oct. 29. Sickles' Brigade is erecting earth works on the Maryland shore opposite Shipping Point. A number of Washington senators are urging the necessity of a forward movement of the army, and representing the sentiment of the people as impatient at the present delay.

The Herald's Washington dispatch says the Richmond papers publish full accounts of the Naval Expedition taken from New York papers. Sighting parties returned from beyond Vienna to day, without encountering any rebels, nor were there any at Fairfax Court House village, but they had retired to Centerville some days since.

The following deaths occurred in the hospital yesterday: N. G. Sawtell, Co. G, B. B. Ford, Co. I, 21 N. H. Regiment.

Benuegard has made his official report of the battle of Bull Run, comprising one hundred pages of foolscap, but yet Davis withholds its publication.

The World's dispatch says that Lieut. Scott has been arrested for disobedience of orders in bringing the Keystone State to Philadelphia, after being ordered to pursue the pirate Sumter till he found her.

CAMP MORRISON, 4 miles south of Warsaw, Oct. 28.

A correspondent of the St. Louis papers says: Gen. Lane captured a transportation train of the enemy near Butler, Bates County, and took the escort prisoners a few days since. Among the latter were Capt. Whitten and Lieut. Baughen. Gen. Lane also reports that he found a large number of sick and wounded rebels at Rose Hill, Johnson County, in a starving condition, to whose wants he administered.

Nine contrabands arrived in camp a day or two since, sent here by one of Gen. Lane's officials. Their case has been investigated and it is understood that Gen. Fremont will return them to their masters.

Gen. Lane also captured a large amount of lead in one of the western Counties, and sent it to Fort Scott, Kansas. There is no definite news of the whereabouts of Price or McCulloch.

LADIES' GAITER BOOTS.

A little glove stirs up my heart as often stir up the curtain. A snow-white muslin, when it fits, makes many a curious notion. All sorts of lady fashions thrill my feelings, as they'd cry, But little female gaiter boots are death and nothing shorter!

And just to put you on your guard, I'll give you, short and brief, A small hotel experience Which filled my heart with grief: Last summer, at the Pavilion Hotel, I stopped a week or more, And marked two "boot-cases" every morn Before my neighbor's door: Two boots with patent leather tips, Two boots which seemed to say, "An angel trod around in us," They stole my heart away; And often in my nightly dreams They swept before my face, A lady growing out of them As flowers grow from a vase. But ah! one morn I saw a sight Which struck me like a stone, Some other name was on the book Those boots were not alone! A great tall pair of other boots Was standing by their side, And off they walked one afternoon And with them walked—a bride.

Ladies, comment is unnecessary: Those Gaiter Boots came from
